

Key Scriptures

So now I am giving you a new commandment: Love each other. Just as I have loved you, you should love each other.

John 13:34

Just because something is technically legal doesn't mean that it's spiritually appropriate. If I went around doing whatever I thought I could get by with, I'd be a slave to my impulses.

Leviticus 24:20

Key Concepts

Just do what you want.

- It's human nature do things without thinking about the consequences or after effects.
- What we do has consequences (good or bad) and usually has an effect on people.
- The only times Jesus talked about "I" was when asking: What can I do for you?

Loving others requires me to think bigger than just about what I want.

- Just because I could do whatever I want doesn't mean I should

Talk About It

- Why is it so easy to just focus on what I want?
- What am I neglecting when only considering what I want?
- How does loving others change the way I think about what I want?
- What does "Jesus loves me" mean to me?
- Where am I missing it when it comes to loving people like Jesus loves me?
- Where am I neglecting missing others by doing what I want instead?
- How do I go about loving others instead of just doing what I want?
